FEFLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

OLD ENGLISH.

" And lot the old hath turned into the new." In distant days, England's great banquets and tournaments and dances were a part of her state business. Then it was that kings and noblemen set fashions.

Our splendid "old English" designs are full of the tradition of castle, hall and chapel—dining-room tables have grown out of Norman bench-table side-by-side with Davenports and Tudor Chairs; Fourposters beds and "church-bench" seats. A long lineage has passed them from primitive types into Gothic beauty and variety (all the ages contrib-uting thereto), and thence into Greek or Italian straight lines and modern comfort. To have "Old English" fraught with native sentiment, you must "BUY OF THE MAKER"
